| Future   | 5. The Gentile Nations    | Ezek. 20:30-44; cf Psa.50:16-21Matt 25:31-46               | This judgment takes place on earth after the Lord returns to earth at the close of the tribulation period and after Armageddon. This judgment will include resurrected Old Testament saints other than Israel. The result of this judgment determines who will go into the kingdom and enter into eternal life. This judgment will include the Gentiles who came through the Tribulation period who will be judged based on how they treated the believing remnant of Israel. |
| Future   | 6. the Fallen Angels      | Jude 62 Pet. 2:41 Cor. 6:3                                 | This judgment takes place after the final rebellion in the battle of Gog and Magog. Members of the Body of Christ will be involved in this (1Cor. 6:3)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
